Sexual Assault Resources for Non-English Speakers: Dr. Campbell thanked Katie Haft, Ruth Lopez and Kaitlin Legg for their assistance. Dr. Campbell said that she is on a list serve from SUNY who has developed a sexual assault resource information sheet that can be translated into 120 languages. It is free to use if attributions are made to SUNY. Dr. Campbell met with Ms. Lopez who said that the highest number of nonnative speakers on campus speak Spanish, Portuguese and Chinese. Dr. Campbell distributed an information sheet that was translated into Spanish to the committee as a sample. She acknowledged that it is not in the prettiest format, but they are working on putting it into a more attractive brochure format with links to the websites mentioned. If your area has a need for the information sheet to be translated into another language, just contact Dr. Campbell. If students need something more specific, she can help. They are working on how to make it available in a variety of ways and little bit different, so write down what is required of employees. Everyone Robb met with during the audit could clearly articulate the process so it just needs to be written down. Lt. Halstead said that calling dispatch is not the best way to report and suggested that email is the preferred method. She said to take notes while talking with the student, write it down and email it. Of course, if a crime is occurring right there and you see it, yes call dispatch. It was suggested that maybe UPD could have a designated email address. Ms. Hann said that we need a recommendation from UPD on how they want to receive reports. Right now, all procedures just say "contact UPD".

Mr. Reis said that everyone's internal procedures would not be included in the ASR. Dr. Campbell asked if anyone has written procedures. She then asked Robb if his notes reflect what people said was their process.
